O God, So Rich in Mercy

Syriac: Satroonon

- ❖ O God, so rich in mercy, I beg that you forgive me.
You welcomed back the lost son; receive me in your mercy.
- ❖ O God, the Holy Father, you sanctify your people.
Your servant now awaits, Lord, your grace to sanctify him.
- ❖ O God, the Son Eternal, you taught the twelve apostles.
Your servant now awaits, Lord, your grace to give him wisdom.
- ❖ O God, the Holy Spirit, you came in tongues of fire.
Your servant now awaits, Lord, your grace to give him knowledge.
- ❖ May heaven's gates be opened; your hand be placed upon him.
Your servant now awaits, Lord, your hand to bring him blessings.
- ❖ Your stole will soon adorn him who humbly bows before you.
Your servant now awaits, Lord, adornment by your Spirit.
- ❖ With joy the hosts of heaven behold this ordination.
Your servant joins their ranks, Lord, and earth now sings your praises.
- ❖ With awe, O God, your angels behold your Spirit coming to give his gifts through Chrism through holy hands of bishops.
- ❖ Lord, nothing can contain you, yet priestly hands can hold you.
Now sanctify your servant, that he may serve you purely.
- ❖ O God, your Spirit's coming forgives the debts of sinners.
Your servant now awaits, Lord, to be ordained and pardoned.

Diaconal Proclamation

The Deacon presents the incense to the Bishop, proclaiming:

Deacon: Let us stand well in prayer and petition,
before the God of gods, the King of kings,
and the Lord of lords;
before the forgiving altar of our Savior;
before the glorious and divine Mysteries placed upon it;
before the imposition of hand
upon the servant of God, N.;
and before our holy father, Bishop N.,
through whom this imposition of hand is achieved.
Let us burn incense
and pray the Lord for his mercies.

Prayer of Forgiveness

Bishop: (placing incense in the Thurbile, he says:)
To the glory and honor of the Most Holy Trinity.

Proemion

The Celebrant, or someone appointed by him, chants the Prayer of Forgiveness. Meanwhile, either the Celebrant, or another Priest or Deacon, incenses the Cross three times three (in the middle, to the right, and to the left), the four corners of the Altar, the Clergy, and the Congregation.

Bishop: Let us raise glory, honor, and praise to the merciful Lord who is abundant in graces. He created the human race from nothing and endowed it with beauty. When we sinned and fell, he saved us, raised us up and made us worthy to have access to the exalted dignity of his Divine Grace.

O Lord God of mercy, we implore your eternal goodness to prepare your servant for the service of your holy altar, as he bows before the throne of your majesty and awaits your gifts. To the Good One be glory and honor, on this day, and all the days of our lives, and for ever.

Cong: Amen.

Sedro

Bishop: O Lord, you called us in our humility to honor your exalted glory, and in spite of our unworthiness, you chose us for this ministry. We implore your mercy: do not look at the sinfulness of our lives, nor at the unlawful passions within us. Do not deny your Divine Grace to us, to this service, or to your faithful people. Rather, be gracious to us and to your flock, for the sake of your holy name invoked upon us. Grant us the gifts of your Holy Spirit, that we perform this priestly ministry, not for our condemnation or shame before the fearsome throne of Christ, but for the pardon of our faults and the sanctification of our souls and bodies.

Bestow upon us that familiar fellowship, proper to those who were perfected according to your will, in the divine call of this holy service. May it be for the glory of your holy name, and the upbuilding, glory and honor of the holy apostolic Church. Worship, thanks, glory and honor are due to you, to your only-begotten Son, and to your living Holy Spirit, now and for ever.

Cong: Amen.

Christ, the Lord of All Shepherds

Syriac: Ehnono Noohro Shareero

- ❖ Christ, the Lord of all shepherds, said to the leader of the Twelve:
“Peter, care for the gift of faith that I placed within your hands.
Guard your flock with diligence from divisions, harm, and strife.
You will be accountable to the One who judges all when the day of judgment comes.”

- ❖ Blessed Paul wrote to Timothy: “Take great care in governing and beware, when ordaining priests for the churches of our Lord,
 not to elevate the proud,
 envious, or selfish man;
 but the meek and humble one who, with calm and gentleness, governs his own household well.”

Etro

Bishop: (standing at the Gospel lectern)

All-merciful Lord, in the abundance of your mercies, we ask you to receive the sweet fragrance of this incense. We offer it to your divine majesty as we present to you your spiritual children, called to this service through your loving humanity. Make them worthy to serve at your holy altar in pure minds, and to glorify and praise you, O Christ, and your Holy Spirit, now and for ever.

Cong: Amen.

Qadeeshat Aloho

(You are holy, O God)

STAND

The Celebrant and Congregation sing the Qadeeshat three times, in Syriac.

	it-ra-ham 'a-lain.	Have mercy on us.	ܐܠܗܐ ܕܡܪܝܡ ܚܝܠ.

Bishop: Holy and immortal Lord, sanctify our minds and purify our consciences, that we may praise you with purity and listen to your Holy Scriptures.
To you be glory, for ever.

Cong: Amen.

Readings

Psalm of the Readings

Syriac: ramremain

SIT

Cong: “Lift me high, Lord, exalt me!”
were the words the Priesthood said.
And the Lord gave this answer:
“No one has a rank so high!”

Cel: “Michael’s hosts are not greater,
nor the hosts of Gabriel.
Seraphim are not higher.
No one has a rank so high!”

Cong: Truly priests are like angels, deacons are like seraphim,
and subdeacons and lectors are like those who watch on high.

Epistle

The Reader stands at the Epistle lectern, while a server holds a lighted candle to the right of the lectern. The Reader introduces the Epistle, saying:

Reader: A reading from the Letter to the Hebrews. (Heb. 4:14-5:9)

Your blessing,	Barek mor	כָּבֹר מֹר
your Excellency.	Reesh-Kohneh.	רֵעַשׁ קֹנְהָ

Bishop: (blessing the Reader)

Glory to the Lord of Paul and the apostles! ✠ May the mercy of God descend upon the Reader and the listeners, and upon this parish and her children, for ever.

The Reader recites the Epistle.

Reader: Since, then, we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast to our confession. For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but we have one who in every respect has been tested as we are, yet without sin. Let us therefore approach the throne of grace with boldness, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need. Every high priest chosen from among mortals is put in charge of things pertaining to God on their behalf, to offer gifts and sacrifices for sins. He is able to deal gently with the ignorant and wayward, since he himself is subject to weakness; and because of this he must offer sacrifice for his own sins as well as for those of the people. And one does not presume to take this honor, but takes it only when called by God, just as Aaron was. So also Christ did not glorify himself in becoming a high priest, but was appointed by the one who said to him, “You are my Son, today I have begotten you”; as he says also in another place, “You are a priest forever, according to the order of Melchizedek.” In the days of his flesh, Jesus offered up prayers and supplications, with loud cries and tears, to the one who was able to save him from death, and he was heard because of his reverent submission. Although he was a Son, he learned obedience through what he suffered; and having been made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation for all who obey him.

The Reader concludes saying:

Reader: Praise be to God always!

Gospel

STAND

Cong: Alleluia! Alleluia!

Cantor: “Let your Priests be clothed with righteousness, and let your faithful shout for joy.” (Psalm 132:9)

Cong: Alleluia!

The Celebrant places incense in the Thurible, and incenses the Book of Gospels three times three, while a Deacon proclaims:

Deacon: Before the proclamation of the Gospel of our Savior, announcing life for our souls, we offer this incense and ask for your mercy, O Lord.

Bishop: (blessing the Congregation)

✠ Peace be with you.

Cong: And with your spirit.

Bishop: From the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ
According to Saint Matthew, who proclaimed life to the world.
Let us listen to the proclamation of life and salvation for our souls. (Matthew 10: 5-10)

Deacon: Remain silent, O listeners, for the Holy Gospel is about to be proclaimed to you.
Listen and give glory and thanks to the Word of the living God.

The Gospel is now proclaimed (recited or chanted).

Bishop: These twelve Jesus sent out with the following instructions: “Go nowhere among the Gentiles, and enter no town of the Samaritans, but go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. As you go, proclaim the good news, ‘The kingdom of heaven has come near.’ Cure the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, cast out demons. You received without payment; give without payment. Take no gold, or silver, or copper in your belts, no bag for your journey, or two tunics, or sandals, or a staff; for laborers deserve their food.”

The Celebrant concludes by blessing the Congregation with the Book of Gospels, saying:

Bishop: This is the truth! Peace be with you.

He kisses the Book of Gospels.

Cong: Praise and blessings to Jesus Christ, our Lord and God, for giving us his words of life.

Homily

Creed

STAND

All: We believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

We believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only-begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the Giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church. We confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and we look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Celebrant walks towards the Altar, chanting in Syriac:

you accepted the offerings of our ancestors.
Now accept these offerings that your children have brought to you out of their love for you and for your holy name.
Shower your spiritual blessings upon them and, in place of their earthly gifts, grant them life and your kingdom.

Cong: Amen.

The Celebrant places the Offerings on the Altar and covers them with the Palls. He extends his hands in the form of a Cross upon them, saying:

Cel: As we remember our Lord God and Savior Jesus Christ and his plan of salvation for us, we recall upon this offering all those who have pleased God from Adam to this day, especially Mary, the blessed Mother of God,

Remember, O God, the children of the holy Church:
our fathers and mothers, and our brothers and sisters,
both the living and the departed, especially those for whom this sacrifice is offered, N.
Remember also all those who share with us today in this offering.

Cong: Amen.

The Celebrant incenses the Cross (three times three); the Offerings (in the middle, to the right, and to the left); the four corners of the Altar, and then the Congregation. He concludes by incensing the Relics of the martyrs in the Altar (to the right and to the left).

SIT

Cel: (blessing himself)

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, now and for ever.

Cong: Amen.

Cel: (extending his hands)

Merciful and Holy Lord and Father, through your only-begotten Son, you have prepared this spiritual banquet for us. Accept the offering of this bloodless sacrifice and grant us the gift of your Holy Spirit. Make us worthy to give one another the greeting of peace with pure hearts and divine love, that we may raise glory and thanks to you, to your only Son, and to your Holy Spirit, now and for ever.

The Celebrant places his hands on the Altar and on the Offerings, and then he gives the greeting of peace.

Cel: Peace to you, O Altar of God.
Peace to the Holy Mysteries placed upon you.
Peace to you, O server of the Holy Spirit.

Deacon: Let us give the greeting of peace to our neighbor with love and faith that are pleasing to God.

The Congregation exchanges the greeting of peace with joined hands, while singing an appropriate hymn of peace, such as:

Cong: Peace, love, and faith, brothers and sisters, from God the Father
and from the Lord Jesus Christ, and may the God of peace be with us. Amen.

Eucharistic Prayer

The Celebrant blesses the Congregation three times (in the middle, to the left, and to the right).

Cel: The love of God the Father ✠, and the grace of the only-begotten Son ✠, and the communion and indwelling of the Holy Spirit ✠
be with you, my brothers and sisters, for ever.

Cong: And with your spirit.

Cel: (lifting up his hands and looking upwards)
Let us lift up our thoughts, our minds, and our hearts.

Cong: We lift them up to the Lord.

Cel: (joining his hands and bowing)
Let us give thanks to the Lord with reverence and worship him with humility.

Cong: It is right and just.

Cel: (extending his hands)
Truly it is right and just to glorify and praise you, O God the Father, for you are holy and the giver of life. You are blessed, with your only-begotten Son and your living Holy Spirit. You are surrounded by the cherubim and seraphim, who sing with pure voices and heavenly melodies. They cry out, glorify, and proclaim:

Cong: Holy, holy, holy, mighty Lord God of hosts.
Heaven and earth are full of your great glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who has come and will come in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

Cel: Holy, holy, holy are you, God the Father, full of mercy; holy is your only Son, our Lord Jesus Christ; and holy is your life-giving Spirit. You are holy and the giver of all that is good. For our salvation, your only-begotten Son became flesh of the pure Virgin Mary, and by his divine plan he saved and redeemed us.

In a similar way,
over the chalice of wine mixed with water,
he blessed and sanctified it,
and gave it to his disciples, saying:

Take this, all of you, and drink from it,
for this is my blood of the new covenant, which will be poured out and given for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins and for eternal life.

Cong: Amen.

The Celebrant bows.

Cel: (extending his hands)

Whenever you eat this bread and drink this cup, you do so in memory of me until I come again.

Cong: We remember your death, O Lord.
We profess your resurrection.
We await your second coming.
We implore your mercy and compassion.
We ask for the forgiveness of sins.
May your mercy rest upon us.

Cel: O Lord, Lover of all people, we remember your plan of salvation, and we ask you to have mercy on your worshippers, and to save your inheritance when you appear at the end of time to reward all people justly according to their deeds. For this, your Church implores you and, through you and with you, implores your Father, saying:

Cong: Have mercy on us, Almighty Father.
Have mercy on us.

Cel: (crossing his hands over his chest)

O Lord, as we, your sinful children, receive your graces, we thank you for them and because of them.

Cong: We praise you. We bless you. We adore you.
We glorify you. We profess our faith in you and we ask you:
Have compassion on us, O God.
Have mercy on us and hear us.

Deacon: How awesome is this moment, my beloved, for the living Holy Spirit descends and rests upon this offering for our sanctification. Let us stand with reverence as we pray.

Cel: (bowing, he flutters his hands three times over the Mysteries)

Have mercy on us, O Lord; have mercy on us. Send us your life-giving Spirit from heaven to hover over this offering, to make it the life-giving Body and Blood, and to pardon and sanctify us.

Cel: (kneeling on both knees and extending his hands)

Cong: Amen.

Intercessions

SIT

Cel: (joining his hands)

We offer you, O Lord, this divine sacrifice for your Church, especially for our fathers and shepherds: N., the Pope of Rome, N. Peter, our Patriarch of Antioch, N., our Bishop, and all the bishops of the true faith. With blameless lives and with purity and holiness, may they guide your Church and present to you a faithful people who honor your name. We pray to you, O Lord.

Cong: Lord, have mercy.

Deacon: Remember, O Lord, your people here before you, especially those who have presented these offerings. Forgive them, so that they may always live blameless lives in your presence, and recognize the blessings that you bestow upon them, for you are good and rich in graces. We pray to you, O Lord.

Cong: Lord, have mercy.

Deacon: Remember, O Lord, civil leaders throughout the world, that they may stand for justice and establish peace. We pray to you, O Lord.

Cong: Lord, have mercy.

On some occasions, the Deacon may add intercessions, after having consulted with the Celebrant.

Deacon: Remember, O Lord, all those who have pleased you from the beginning, especially Mary, the holy Mother of God, and the prophets, apostles, martyrs, and confessors, John the Baptist, Stephen, the archdeacon, Saint N. (the patron of the church), and Saint N. (the saint of the day). Assist us through their prayers, and make us worthy to rejoice with them in your kingdom. We pray to you, O Lord.

Cong: Lord, have mercy.

Deacon: Remember, O Lord, the fathers and teachers of the true faith who have endured sufferings for the sake of your Church and your people. May we truly and faithfully follow in their footsteps. We pray to you, O Lord.

Cong: Lord, have mercy.

Cel: Remember, O Lord, the faithful departed who have left us and have gone to their rest hoping in you, awaiting that life-giving voice calling them to life. Accept the offerings we present to you on their behalf, and have mercy on them in your kingdom. Through our Lord Jesus, who is without sin, we hope to find mercy and forgiveness for our sins and for theirs.

Cong: Grant rest, O God, to the departed, and forgive the sins we have committed with or without full knowledge.

Cel: (extending his hands and blessing the Congregation)

Grant us pardon, O God, and forgive us and the departed, ✠ so that your blessed name may be glorified in us and in all things, with the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, and of your living Holy Spirit, now and for ever.

Cong: As it was, is now, and shall be for ever. Amen.

Fraction, Signing, Sprinkling, Mingling, and Elevation

The Congregation sings an appropriate hymn while the Celebrant performs the following rite:

The Fraction, symbolizing Christ's Crucifixion and Death; the Signing, symbolizing the action of the Trinity in uniting the Body and Blood; the Sprinkling, symbolizing the sprinkling of the Body with the Blood which is the symbol of life; the Mingling, symbolizing the uniting of Christ's Body and Blood; and the Elevation, symbolizing Christ's Resurrection, Ascension into Heaven, and the completion of the Mystery of Redemption.

The Celebrant takes the Host in his right hand and breaks it over the Chalice into two parts; then he breaks a piece from the edge of the half remaining in his left hand saying silently:

Cel: We have believed and have approached and now we seal ✠ and break this oblation, the heavenly bread, the Body of the Word,
who is the living God.

He dips the small piece into the Chalice in the form of a Cross:

We sign this chalice of salvation and thanksgiving with the forgiving ember which glows with heavenly mysteries:

He dips the Body in the Blood three times and continues:

In the name of the Father ✙,
the Living One, for the living;
and of the only Son ✙,
the Holy One, begotten of him,
and like him, the Living One, for the living;
and of the Holy Spirit ✙,
the beginning, the end, and the perfection of all that was and will be in heaven and on earth;
the one, true, and blessed God without division from whom comes life for ever.

He sprinkles the Body three times, using the small piece that has been dipped into the Blood:

The Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ is sprinkled on his holy Body,
in the name of the Father ✙,
and of the Son ✙,
and of the Holy Spirit ✙.

He drops the small piece into the Blood:

You have united, O Lord, your divinity with our humanity and our humanity with your divinity, your life with our mortality and our mortality with your life.
You have assumed what is ours and you have given us what is yours for the life and salvation of our souls.
To you be glory for ever.

The Celebrant joins the two halves of the Body and holds them in his right hand over the Chalice which is held in his left hand. He elevates them and prays with the Congregation:

STAND

All: O Lord,
you are the pleasing Oblation,
who offered yourself for us.
You are the forgiving Sacrifice,
who offered yourself to your Father.
You are the High Priest,
who offered yourself as the Lamb.
Through your mercy,
may our prayer rise like incense
which we offer to your Father through you.
To you be glory for ever.

Lord's Prayer and Penitential Rite

Cel: (extending his hands)

Compassionate Lord, may we, your lowly servants, be made worthy to pray with purity and holiness and to call upon you, saying:

All: (with extended hands)

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and for ever. Amen.

Cel: (extending his hands)

Yes, O Lord, Lover of all people, deliver us from the Evil One and from his deceitful ways, and do not forsake us lest temptation overcome us, for yours is the kingdom, with your only Son and your Holy Spirit, now and for ever.

Cong: Amen.

Cel: (blessing the Congregation)

✠ Peace be with you.

Cong: And with your spirit.

All bow their heads.

Deacon: Bow your heads before the God of mercy, before his forgiving altar, and before the Body and Blood of our Savior, who gives life to those who partake of him, and receive the blessing from the Lord.

Cel: (extending his hands)

O Lord, bless your faithful people who bow before you. Deliver us from all harm and make us worthy to share in these Divine Mysteries, with purity and holiness, that through them we may be forgiven and made holy, and we raise glory to you, now and for ever.

Cong: Amen.

Cel: (blessing the Congregation)

✠ The grace of the most Holy Trinity, eternal and consubstantial,
be with you, my brothers and sisters, for ever.

Cong: And with your spirit.

Deacon: Let each one of us look to God with reverence and humility and ask him for mercy and compassion.

Invitation to Communion

Cel: (elevating the Paten in his right hand and the Chalice in his left)

Holy Gifts for the holy,
with perfection, purity, and sanctity.

Cong: One Holy Father, one Holy Son, one Holy Spirit!
Blessed be the name of the Lord,
for he is one in heaven and on earth;
to him be glory, for ever.

All: (with extended hands)

Make us worthy, O Lord God, so that our bodies may be sanctified
by your holy Body
and our souls purified
by your forgiving Blood.
May our communion be for the forgiveness of our sins and for new life.
O Lord our God, to you be glory, for ever.

Communion of the Bishop and Priests

The Hosts of Angels

Arabic: 'asakiroo sama

Cong: The hosts of angels have come to stand with us at the holy altar.

They sing in chorus
and carry Christ, the Lamb, sacrificed before us.

O come, receive him,
the saving Lamb of God,
who will grant forgiveness.

Alleluia.

Cel: (praying silently)

The Body of our Lord Jesus Christ is given to me for the forgiveness of my sins and for eternal life.

The Celebrant reverently consumes the Body of Christ.

Cel: (praying silently)

The Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ is given to me for the forgiveness of my sins and for eternal life.

The Celebrant reverently consumes the Blood of Christ. The Concelebrants receive Communion. The Faithful then approach for Communion. Before receiving the Body and Blood of Christ, each one bows and makes the Sign of the Cross, and the Celebrant says:

Cel: The Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ are given to you for the forgiveness of your sins and for eternal life.

After the Communion of the Bishop and the Concelebrants, and before the Communion of the Faithful, the Holy Mysteries are covered on the Altar with the large veil.

The Bishop's Throne is then placed in the Sanctuary, by the "Royal Gate".

The Bishop, wearing his Miter and holding the Pastoral Staff, steps away from the Altar and comes to sit on his Throne.

We pray to you, O Lord.

We pray to you, O Lord.

Cong: Lord, have mercy.

Deacon: Forgive your people, O God, and have mercy on your flock. Perfect your servant in your gifts and let your grace dwell in his mind.
We pray to you, O Lord.

Cong: Lord, have mercy.

Prayer of the Diaconal Proclamation

Bishop: O Knower of hidden things and Examiner of our hearts, you dwell in them and know our secrets. In your mercy, listen to our prayers and petitions. We are your servants who gather in your holy name, worship you and await the abundance of your blessings. Be gracious to us, and in your mercy, answer our petitions. Accept the proclamation of your servant, N. He is the servant of your altar and vows himself to your holy name. Have mercy on our souls and the souls of our faithful departed, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Cong: Amen.

Presentation of the Candidate

A Periodeut leads him by the right hand, presents him to the Bishop and says:

Periodेत: We present to Your Excellency, our father, chosen of God, Bishop N., this God-loving servant, N. May he receive from you the imposition of the divine hand and be raised from the Order of Priests to the Order of Periodets to serve the Altars of the Eparchy of Saint Maron of Brooklyn. As he vows obedience to Your Excellency, we all pray to God on his behalf, proclaiming three times:

All:	Lord, have mercy.	Kyrie eleison.	كُـرِيـةَ اِيـلـيـسـونَ.
	Lord, have mercy.	Kyrie eleison.	كُـرِيـةَ اِيـلـيـسـونَ.
	Lord, have mercy.	Kyrie eleison.	كُـرِيـةَ اِيـلـيـسـونَ.

Election of the Candidate: “The Divine Grace”

The Bishop directs the Candidate to kneel on both knees. He then places his right hand on the Candidate's head, proclaiming:

Bishop: ✠ The Divine Grace, and Heavenly Gift, which, at all times, satisfies our needs, heals our infirmities, binds up our wounds, and takes care of all the children of the Holy Church, by the election and offering of the flock, and by the command of the High Priests, this servant of God N., who prostrates before the True Altar, and gazes upon the God of Heaven, while he awaits the gift of his grace, which calls and promotes him from the Order of Priests to the Order of Periodeuts for the Altars of the Eparchy of Saint Maron of Brooklyn.

✠ Let us therefore all pray diligently for him, that the overshadowing of the Holy Spirit may come upon him, and let us cry out for him three times:

Grant him this, O Lord.
Grant him this, O Lord.
Grant him this, O Lord.

Prayer

The Bishop flutters his hands over the head of the Candidate, praying silently:

Bishop: O Lord, make him worthy of your call to the dignity of Periodeut.
Grant him, through your loving humanity, to be devoted to your holy name, to serve your holy altar, and to find mercy before you.

He continues aloud:

Because you are merciful, O God, praise and honor are due to you, to your only-begotten Son, and to your Holy Spirit, now and for ever.

Cong: Amen.

Imposition of Hand and First Prayer of Consecration

The Bishop removes the Miter, places his left hand on the Mysteries and his right hand on the Candidate's head, saying:

Bishop: O Lord, our living God, we beseech you now to bestow your right hand, through the indwelling of the Holy Spirit, upon your servant, N. By your undeniable power, rest your right hand, together with mine, upon him and elevate him from the Order of Priests to the Order of Periodeuts. Enable him to administer your holy, life-giving Mysteries. May his humility exalt your divinity, his ministry be acceptable to your will, his Priesthood be pleasing to your majesty, and the holiness of his life do honor to your grace.

By dwelling within him, make him a worthy trustee and steward, that he may strive and yearn to protect his flock from the sting of sin. Grant him to stand at the head of this flock, to which you have assigned him, that he may be able to serve at your altar, both here and in heaven, with purity and sanctity and free from all sin and deceit,

He turns toward the Altar and continues:

through the grace of your only-begotten Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, with whom glory, honor, and worship are due to you and your Holy Spirit, now and for ever.

Cong: Amen.

Imposition of Hand and Second Prayer of Consecration

The Bishop prays aloud:

Bishop: O Lord, God of prophets and apostles, through their prayers and hymns, we implore your mercies, that you might grant the indwelling of your Holy Spirit to your servant, N. Promote him from the Order of Priests to the Order of Periodeuts. May he be your worthy steward. May he serve your divine Mysteries without blemish, and your holy altar without blame. May he administer your Church, and the Priests under his care, without arrogance. May he welcome strangers, visit the sick, comfort the widows, and, in the likeness of the just Abraham and Job, extend a helping hand to those who seek him. May he keep his door open for all. May he build altars and baptismal fonts, administer properly his flock and rule well your household, all the days of his life,

He turns toward the Altar and continues:

through your grace and the love of your only Son and your living and Holy Spirit.

Cong: Amen.

Diaconal Proclamation

Deacon: Let us all stand in prayer and offer God supplications for the servant he has chosen, that he may call upon him in faith.
We pray to you, O Lord.

Cong: Lord have mercy.

Prayer of the Proclamation

Bishop: O Lord, Giver of Mysteries, may he reach perfection in you and may he be granted this spiritual and priestly imposition of hand. Forgive your people and have mercy on your flock. We raise glory to you, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, now and for ever.

Cong: Amen.

The Bishop is at his Throne, wearing the Miter and holding his Pastoral Staff in his left hand. The Deacons intone:

Deacons:	Lord, have mercy.	Kyrie eleison.	كُـدْ؛ نَـلَـكْـسُـعْ.
	Lord, have mercy.	Kyrie eleison.	كُـدْ؛ نَـلَـكْـسُـعْ.
	Lord, have mercy.	Kyrie eleison.	كُـدْ؛ نَـلَـكْـسُـعْ.

Prayer

The Bishop prays silently:

Bishop: O Lord God, look upon us as we now stand before you. Be pleased with us and accept the work of our hands. Send your heavenly blessings upon your servant, N., and accept the imposition of our hand upon him. Perfect him in your grace, so that he may be worthy, through this great gift, to stand before you in purity, to serve you with a clean heart, and to find compassion with all the saints who have pleased you from the beginning, for you are the God who seeks mercy. Glory, honor, and worship are due to you, your Son and your Holy Spirit.

Handing On of the Gospel and First Procession

The Bishop directs the New Periodeut to stand and hands him the Gospel to carry against his chest. Two Periodeuts lead him with two stoles. The Periodeut on his left holds the vessel of Myron (Chrism), and the Periodeut on his right holds the Cross. They lead him in Procession around the Church, while the following hymn is sung:

Qolo

Christ the Bridegroom from on High

Syriac: Z'ouro

- ❖ Christ, the Bridegroom from on high,
has prepared a banquet feast
for his holy, faithful Church,
his beloved, chosen Bride.
- ❖ All the nations he has called to rejoice at this great feast given for the Church he loves and betrothed upon his Cross.
- ❖ Scribes and Lectors serve him there,
for he has appointed them.
Alleluia! Alleluia!
Day and night, they serve their Lord.

When they reach the Baptismal Font, the New Periodeut signs the font with his hand in the form of a Cross. They then proceed back to the Altar.

Prayer

After the Procession, the Bishop takes the Gospel from him; the New Periodeut kneels on both knees and kisses the hand of the Bishop. The Bishop places his right hand on the New Periodeut's head and prays:

Bishop: By the power of your life-giving Word, O Lord, make your servant, N., whom you have chosen and presented, worthy of the noble dignity of Periodeut. Grant him to speak with your knowledge, that he may stand before you and serve you. Enable him to do your will and to fulfill it in the holy churches, blessing their baptismal fonts, caring for their altars, and anointing them with the sweet fragrance of the Chrism, in remembrance of the day of our Savior's passion, through whom and with whom glory and honor are due to you and to your Holy Spirit, now and for ever.

Cong: Amen.

Handing On of the Myron (Chrism) and Second Procession

The Bishop hands the New Periodeut the vessel of Myron (Chrism). Two Periodeuts lead him with two stoles. The Periodeut on his left does not carry anything, and the Periodeut on his right holds the Cross. They lead him in Procession around the Church, while the following hymn is sung:

Qolo

Qadeeshat. Holy God, the Son of God

Syriac: Qadeeshat Rohem Nosh

- ❖ Qadeeshat.
Holy God, the Son of God.
You betrothed the holy Church to be your bride.
- ❖ Qadeeshat.
God Almighty, Loving One.
You have turned your flock away
from other gods.
- ❖ Qadeeshat.
God Immortal, Living One.
By your death you saved your Church from sin and death.

- ❖ Christ our God,
by your cross protect the Church.
Keep her children safe from harm,
from Satan's power.
- ❖ On this day,
for the pardon of our sins,
we receive your Body and your Blood, O Lord.
- ❖ Now the Church
offers pleasing gifts to you,
and her children sing your praise,
for evermore.

When they reach the Baptismal Font, the New Periodeut signs the font with the Myron (Chrism) with his thumb in the form of a Cross. They then proceed back to the Altar.

Prayer

After the Procession, the Bishop takes the vessel of Myron (Chrism) from him; the New Periodeut kneels on both knees and kisses the hand of the Bishop. The Bishop places his right hand on the New Periodeut's head and, for the second time, prays:

Bishop: By the power of your life-giving Word, O Lord, make your servant, N., whom you have chosen and presented, worthy of the noble dignity of Periodeut. Grant him to speak with your knowledge, that he may stand before you and serve you. Enable him to do your will and to fulfill it in the holy churches, blessing their baptismal fonts, caring for their altars, and anointing them with the sweet fragrance of the Chrism, in remembrance of the day of our Savior's passion, through whom and with whom glory and honor are due to you and to your Holy Spirit, now and for ever.

Cong: Amen.

Handing On of the Cross and Third Procession

The Bishop hands the New Periodeut the Cross. Two Periodeuts lead him with two stoles. The Periodeuts on his left and right do not carry anything. They lead him in Procession around the Church, while the following hymn is sung:

Qolo

Christ Our Lord Was Revealed

Syriac: Ehnono Noohro Shareero

- ❖ Christ our Lord was revealed to us as the true light of the world, and he said: “Those who walk in light keep the darkness far from them.”
Bles-sèd are those who have walked on the path of righteousness.
Earth and heaven honor them
for they lived in holiness.
May they intercede for us.

When they reach the Baptismal Font, the New Periodeut signs the font with the Cross in the form of a Cross. They then proceed back to the Altar.

Prayer

After the Procession, the Bishop takes the Cross from him; the New Periodeut kneels on both knees and kisses the hand of the Bishop. The Bishop places his right hand on the New Periodeut's head and, for the third time, prays:

Bishop: By the power of your life-giving Word, O Lord, make your servant, N., whom you have chosen and presented, worthy of the noble dignity of Periodeut. Grant him to speak with your knowledge, that he may stand before you and serve you. Enable him to do your will and to fulfill it in the holy churches, blessing their baptismal fonts, caring for their altars, and anointing them with the sweet fragrance of the Chrism, in remembrance of the day of our Savior's passion, through whom and with whom glory and honor are due to you and to your Holy Spirit, now and for ever.

Cong: Amen.

Diaconal Proclamation

Deacon: O Christ, God of all, we worship you and pray: for peace and harmony in the whole world; for the protection of the churches and monasteries and for the resplendent steadfastness of their pastors; for the protection of the universe and its inhabitants from all plagues and punishment; for the departed who were born in water and spirit and have journeyed to you in true faith; for your people here present, gathered with us in your holy name.

Cong: O Lord God, hear us.

Prayer of the Proclamation

Bishop: O Christ, God of all, forgive us, and in your compassion, have pity on us; watch over us and guide us in your kindness; perfect us who stand before you; accept the supplications and prayers we offer you on behalf of this Periodeut; be pleased by this imposition of hand he has received today; then with one voice, we shall proclaim:

All:	Lord, have mercy.	Kyrie eleison.	ܡܠܟܝܢ ܕܡܪܝܡ
	Lord, have mercy.	Kyrie eleison.	ܡܠܟܝܢ ܕܡܪܝܡ
	Lord, have mercy.	Kyrie eleison.	ܡܠܟܝܢ ܕܡܪܝܡ

The Enthronement

The Bishop seats the New Periodeut on a Throne placed on the middle step. He directs him to sit and stand three times. Then he prays:

Bishop: O Lord, we have seated your servant, N., on the throne of the Priesthood, for the glory and honor of the Most Holy Trinity, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, and for the upbuilding of the Holy Church, in the Eparchy of Saint Maron of Brooklyn. May the Priests and Deacons of his region vow obedience to him, because of the power of his dignity as Periodeut. In the name of the Father ✠ and of the Son ✠ and of the Holy Spirit ✠ for ever.

Cong: Amen.

Handing On of the Pastoral Staff

The Bishop hands the New Periodeut the Pastoral Staff, saying:

Bishop: O Lord, you bestowed the gift of priesthood, prophecy, holiness and humility upon the Prophet Moses. You handed him the staff to be, in his hand, a sign, a maker of wonders. By it you ordered him to save the people of Israel and to free them from slavery; by it he defeated Pharaoh and lead the Israelites out of Egypt; by this staff of power, he ruled the house of Jacob. Now, O merciful and compassionate Lord, bless your servant through this staff which we have presented to him, to be, for him, a sign of peace and a pledge of justice, now and for ever.

Cong: Amen.

The Entrusting of the Community and the Mysteries

The Bishop leads the New Periodeut to the Gate of the Sanctuary and entrusts the Congregation, the Clergy and all the Mysteries to him saying:

Bishop: Behold, N., Periodeut, I entrust to you the Altars of the Eparchy of Saint Maron of Brooklyn, and all her Priests, Deacons and children, that they may submit to your jurisdiction. For, in their name, you were elected, and by God's will and their agreement, you were perfected in this dignity. You are theirs, and they are yours. Bind, loose, command and judge in justice. Do not dare act otherwise, for God did not elect you to break sinners, but to heal them and bring them back to contrition. Loose, forgive and love the innocent.

Reprimand those who stray, support the oppressed, and condemn the oppressors. Show favor to no one. Assist the widows, visit the sick, and watch over the needy. Give to those who ask of you. Beware of pride, vain-glory, deceit, lies, excommunication and curses. Pursue humility and patience, for they exalt you in the eyes of the living God and place you at his right hand.

Addressing the congregation

Now my brothers and sisters, we have ordained this Periodeut for you, chosen from the holy Church of God and her children to rule, administer and carry the burdens of the weak and sinners who bow their heads before us. May the right hand of God protect you, day and night, in this world and in the next, through the intercession of Mary, Mother of God, Saint Maron, and all the saints.

Cong: Amen.

Reverencing the Altar and Greeting of Peace

By the Bishop and Clergy

The Bishop then takes the New Periodeut by the right hand to the Altar. The New Periodeut first kisses the Altar, then the Bishop's hand. The Bishop and the rest of the Clergy then give the Kiss of Peace to the New Periodeut.

Concluding Prayer

The Bishop concludes the Ordination, saying:

Bishop: O Lord, our almighty and powerful God, we give you thanks for the abundance of your mercy. We ask you to visit and assist our weakness, to bring back and gather those who are scattered and went astray. May your holiness dwell in our midst, your majesty be pleased by us and your divinity exalted by our worship and praise. We implore your abundant grace to descend upon us and upon your servant, the Periodeut, N., who has been perfected through your indwelling. Send him the gifts of your mercies and make him a holy steward of your household, a perfect minister of your holy altar and a holy administrator of your Church.

Make us worthy, by your eternal grace, to stand before you, all the days of our lives, without blemish and with good deeds. We raise glory and thanks to you, to your Father and to your living and Holy Spirit, now, and for ever.

Cong: Amen.

Communion of the New Periodeut and the Faithful

The Bishop gives the Holy Eucharist to the New Periodeut and directs him to distribute Communion to the Congregation.

During Communion, appropriate Communion hymns are sung.

After Communion, the Celebrant blesses the Congregation with the Mysteries:

STAND

Cel: Again and again we thank you, O Lord,
and raise glory to you,
for giving us your Body to eat and your living Blood to drink.
O Lover of all people, have mercy on us.

Cong: Have mercy on us, O Lord.
O compassionate and merciful One,
O Lover of all people, have mercy on us.

Thanksgiving

SIT

The Celebrant consumes what remains of the Mysteries and performs the ablutions. Meanwhile, the Congregation sings an appropriate thanksgiving hymn.

Cel: (extending his hands)

We thank you, Lord God and Father, and we ask that this divine Communion be for the forgiveness of sins and the glory of your holy name, and that of your only Son and of your Holy Spirit, now and for ever.

Cong: Amen.

Cel: (blessing the Congregation)

✠ Peace be with you.

Cong: And with your spirit.

Cel: (extending his hands)

Lord Jesus, our God and Savior, you became flesh for our sake and by sacrificing yourself you saved us. Deliver us from damnation and make us temples of your holy name, for we are your people and your inheritance. We glorify and honor you, your Father, and your Holy Spirit, now and for ever.

Cong: Amen.

Final Blessing

STAND

Cel: Go in peace, my beloved brothers and sisters, with the nourishment and blessings you have received from the forgiving altar of the Lord. May the blessing of the Most Holy Trinity accompany you: the Father ✠, and the Son ✠, and the Holy Spirit ✠, the one God, to whom be glory, for ever.

Cong: Amen.

Farewell to the Altar

Cel: (kissing the Altar, praying silently)

I leave you in peace, O holy Altar, and I hope to return to you in peace.
May the offering I have received from you be for the forgiveness of my faults and the remission of my sins, that I may stand without shame or fear
before the throne of Christ.
I do not know if I shall be able to return to you again to offer another sacrifice.
I leave you in peace.

Final Hymn

The Congregation sings an appropriate final hymn.
